Mystery Road (High Tide album) Mystery Road is the third studio album by the American metalcore band High Tide. The album was released on January 27, 2011 through Victory Records. Background The album is now having been released after a long hiatus between 2006 and 2009, when the band released their debut album Misery and the first EP Careful What You Pray For. Between those two releases, the members of the band went in different directions, with the loss of two members - Brian "V1c3" Welch and Matt "Lil Man" Lenhart - and the addition of new members, including former members of I Killed The Prom Queen, The Acacia Strain and Underoath. The album is the follow-up to the critically acclaimed album Misery. The album is featured in the music games Rock Band and Rocksmith. Singles "Straight Outta Hell" was released as the album's lead single on March 29, 2010, and debuted at No. 74 on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart. "The Facts" was released as the album's second single on October 19, 2010, and debuted at number 57 on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart. A music video was released on January 12, 2011 for "The Facts". Track listing Personnel High Tide Eric Arviso - lead vocals Phil Soussan

Open Ports Scanner is a program for monitoring open TCP and UDP ports. When it detects open communication channels on your computer, it gives a list of local and remote connections, the number of processes running on each port, the name of the process and the program running it. Also, the application permits you to terminate the applications that are currently open and disable the UDP and TCP monitoring. The program keeps the list of open ports in the background, which means that the system works as usual without having to be interrupted. The list can be exported to a TXT document. He's a bit of a late blooming artist having only been making music since the 90s. but he has only released a few albums and have been touring quite often since 2009. Mr. Biscuits - The Beat Goes On!The following performance is from Stourbridge, West Midlands, on Tuesday 8th February. It is to mark the tenth anniversary of the release of his debut album, "The Beat Goes On!". It's a very mature, mellow and acoustic set, featuring acoustic guitars, mandolin, and harmonica. Those who have witnessed the album's first anniversary performance in Finsbury Park, London, will know how John Bush has matured since then. Here, he brings a couple of songs in from "The Beat Goes On!" and also two much more recent songs, "Gimme Shelter" and "Everybody". Nashik - Nevar DostinoThanks to Chris Watson for all the details of the two supporting songs in this performance. Axiotis - Shemos - BahamimShabbat Hag
